WHEN A GIRL LOVES

By RUTH DEWEY GROVES

THIS HAS HAPPENED
NATHANIEL DEAN is engaged to a VIRGINIA HENDERSON. Her father died suddenly after losing a fortune. And her mother, Mrs. DEAN, and her daughter, VIRGINIA, became unhappy in her new home and resolved to tell her father. But when she phones her father late at night his model, CLEVELAND, answers. This causes death and a lower quarrel which is later explained away happily.

Meanwhile, Dean is forced to marry a girl named VIRGINIA, who is a high school position, created by him. But she refuses to let him marry her. She is a high school position, created by him. But she refuses to let him marry her. She is a high school position, created by him. But she refuses to let him marry her.

Without a word, Virginia turned and disappeared from Virginia's apartment. Virginia realized her worst fear. She had married a girl who was a high school position, created by him. But she refuses to let him marry her. She is a high school position, created by him. But she refuses to let him marry her.

Let me go, Virginia cried fiercely at Russell. "Are you mad? Let me go!"

He laughed as she wrenched and tore at the front door. From the doorway he saw her to a position that enabled her to give him a strong blow and managed to break away.

THEATRES

AT PATARGES

"The Walked in Her Sleep" Mary's famous comedy play, which has been given in the city on many occasions, is now being presented at Patarges theatre. It is a play with a special matinee on Thursday. The play is a comedy in which the daughter of a wealthy gentleman is kidnapped and taken to a small town where she is found by a young man who is in love with her. The play is a very good one and is well worth seeing.

The company was in excellent form, not only on account of the splendid play, but on account of the fact that Patricia Dwyer, who has been absent several weeks from illness, was back in the cast, apparently fully recovered and her usual vivacity was back. The added strength of the cast and that her popularity is by no means lessened by her absence, is a fact that the public is glad to see. The play was well received and the company is to be congratulated for their excellent work.

WOMAN IN THE HOME

Household Cares Make Health Demands on the Health The work of the average woman in the home makes great demands on her vitality than men realize, and there is always something to be learned from the experience of other women. When the breadwinner has finished his household duties and the wife has finished hers, the wife is often found to be exhausted and her health is suffering. This is due to the fact that the woman is often overworked and her health is suffering. The woman should take care of her health and not let her household duties get the best of her.
